Situated in the center of a farming country that has no superior in the valley stands the little town of Lewisville in Polk county and though removed from the line of the proposed westside railroad it bids fair to become a place of some size and importance. A letter from Howell Prairie to the Salem Statesman says: I have been collecting statistics of the grain crop of Marion county for three weeks past and from all I can learn, the yield of wheat is 27 and the oats 35 bushels per acre. Some fields have yielded heavily while others have yielded poorly. The spring wheat is about 10 per cent less in yield than the fall wheat, this was owing to so much cool cloudy and wet weather till July 1st and then such hot and dry weather till the grain was ripe. The oat crop is under an average yield for Oregon. The grain is very plump and fair, none was injured by rain. The latest made harvesters and threshers used here have given general satisfaction. The prices of grain are unsettled as yet

To any one engaged in the sale or manufacture of the articles for which these diplomas are offered they will possess value far beyond any coin premium given by the Society. Specimens of these diplomas can be seen by calling on the Secretary of the Society, Mr E M Waite of Salem

Co C, 21st Infantry which has been stationed at Vancouver for some considerable time will be transferred to Port Townsend and Co H which has been on San Juan Island for two years will be ordered on duty at Vancouver

Mr David F Byles of Chehalis county, on Tuesday last lost about one hundred bushels of wheat by fire getting into the field before the grain was bound. Mr Byles is unfortunate in losing grain in this manner. He lost 1 000 bushels last year by fire in the field

Shafer's brewery at Steilacoom came near being destroyed last week. A fire in the adjacent woods caught the fence, and but for the timely arrival of the Steilacoom fire brigade with water buckets shovels picks axes and the like the brewery would soon have been in ashes

About a month ago the steamer Goliah took a ship from Port Townsend over to Burrard Inlet, ran from there across to Nanaimo took in 30 tons of coal, towed a ship out and down to Pillow Point, and thence back to Port Townsend—running the whole 300 miles with her stoppages and towages included in 40 hours time

The Olympia Courier of the 3d says: Gov Ferry to day commuted the death penalty of the young man Lytle at Steilacoom. From matters that had lately come to his knowledge, he had grave doubts if the crime was more than manslaughter. Hence the intervention. Many of the most influential citizens urged it, and a strong feeling was developed in favor of it

On Sunday the 30th ult while Messrs Manning and Botsford were coming to Tacoma from up the Sound with a sloop load of oysters the heavy boom of the boat suddenly jibed with great force and struck Mr Botsford in the side breaking one of his ribs, and injuring him internally. It was a very severe blow for one of his age and little strength, and he has been dangerously ill ever since

A letter in an Olympia paper last week states that Rev J H Wilbur the Indian agent at Simcoe has recently met with a very serious loss. During his absence in attendance at the Methodist Conference at Walla Walla, his office was entered through the roof, the Government safe forced open and $5 000 of United States funds abstracted. The robbers had escaped without detection

Mr John Fry and an Indian, a few days since attempted to cross the mouth of Gray's Harbor from John's Point to Chehalis Point, a distance of six miles, at high tide, in a leaky boat and to swim a horse by the boat. After starting the tide changed and carried them toward the ocean and to save themselves they let the horse go, barely escaping with their lives. The horse was drowned

On Wednesday of last week during the prevalence of a high wind some one set fire to the woods just back of Vancouver, and the dense volumes of smoke soon gave warning to the neighbors that fences and cord wood were in danger. Some three or four hundred cords of wood on Mr Whistler's land was in great danger for a time, but the prospect is now better. Several farms and pasture lands below town were seriously threatened, but by plowing and back firing little or no damage was done

The Grand Lodge of Masons in session at Olympia last week, was attended by fifty delegates representing all the subordinate lodges. The election of officers for the ensuing year took place Friday with the following result: T R Hayden of Olympia Grand Master; Thomas Cranney of Utsalady Deputy Grand Master; A L Learned of Port Townsend Senior Grand Warden; R C Hill Coupeville Junior Grand Warden; Benj Harned Olympia, Grand Treasurer; T M Reed Olympia Grand Secretary

Robt. Mays District Deputy, organized a Grange of 25 members at Goldendale, Klickitat county W T on August 29th to be called Klickitat Grange with the following named officers: G W Miller Master; R W Helm Overseer; W B Chatfield Treasurer; H T Levins Secretary; Wm Hickenbothem Lecturer; W J Stanley Chaplain; M V Harper Steward; O R Johnson Assistant Steward; John Burgen, Gate Keeper; Mrs G W Smith Ceres; Mrs M V Harper Flora; Mrs F A Hopkins Pomona; Mrs W S Stanly Lady Assistant Steward

Mr Mays who has lately been over on the Yakima says he was very much surprised to find such a large and thriving community as there is at Klickitat, most of the farms presenting the appearance of wealth and happiness. He thinks that when transportation at reasonable rates is a fixed fact on the Columbia river that Klickitat Valley will become one of the finest grain growing districts in Eastern Oregon or Washington Territory. He says that emigrants looking for homes east of the mountains would do well to look at Klickitat Valley before settling elsewhere

A Democratic Territorial Convention is hereby called to meet at Vancouver W T on Thursday the 1st day of October 1874 at 10 o'clock A M to [illegible] a candidate for delegate to Congress [illegible] transact such other business as may properly come before it. The basis of representation will be the same as heretofore—two delegates for each member of the House of Representatives of the Territorial Legislature and one delegate for each joint member. It is recommended that the County Conventions be held on Saturday the 19th and the primaries on Saturday the 12th day of September

The Vancouver Register says it has at length arrived at the facts concerning the prevalence of smallpox on Lewis river. Mr H C Comegys merchant at Stoughton states that Mr D P Spencer and wife and a man by the name of Burr have been down with the disease. Mr Spencer and Burr had only slight attacks but the case of Mrs Spencer who is a large and fleshy woman, proved of the confluent type and was for a time quite serious. She however is recovering. These are the only ones at present outside of the Dimick family who have caught the disease. The latter family are all well. All precautionary measures have been used by the intelligent neighbors and the hope is that it will spread no further

By a correspondence from Skokomish Agency dated September 3d the Courier is grieved to learn of the following sad accident: The most intense gloom has been cast over our little community by a painfully distressing case of drowning which occurred last evening about [illegible] o'clock at this place. Dr R H Lansdale's two little sons were playing on the bank of the river in front of the house when the youngest aged about six years in attempting to reach a stick of wood floating on the water lost his balance and fell in. The brother caught at him but failed to reach him when the alarm was immediately raised and the father who was in the back part of the house rushed out just in time to see the body floating off into deep water. He jumped in but failed to reach the drowning child and when he came up immediately cried for help. At that moment no one was near and it was several minutes before any one came. An expert Indian swimmer dived down where he was last seen but failed to find him. Boats were then brought and he was finally seen having drifted into very deep water among roots, but was taken out with a hook and all the [illegible] used that could be to reanimate the [illegible] form, but of no avail. It was too late

PORTLAND DALLES AND SALT LAKE RAILROAD

SALEM Sept. 1 1874

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

I have read with much interest the articles published in your paper from time to time, in relation to the Portland Dalles and Salt Lake railroad and I rejoice to see anything that promises to make that enterprise a success. The great, and it may be said the paramount importance of that road to the growth and prosperity of Oregon can hardly be over estimated. It has been a long time before the public and in a variety of shapes so that the great merit of the enterprise is in no little danger of losing its importance by becoming "an old song"

Now then Mr Editor, while I am in favor of giving all possible aid to this road, and thus contributing as I believe to the general welfare and prosperity of Oregon and the whole North Pacific coast I do not want to be fooled and humbugged. This is not said in any unkind spirit to the gentleman who has labored so long and ardently for the success of the road. An old pioneer and well known to most Oregonians, no one can wish him more success or greater reward for his efforts than the writer of this communication. Yet as I may be called upon to vote upon this proposition of State aid to the road it is better to say now, what I shall certainly say before I could cast a satisfactory vote—at least satisfactory to myself

Col Chapman ought not any longer to be content to give the people unmeaning promises. If he has no means to prosecute this enterprise, he ought to say so. He asked for the passage of an Act two years ago giving him the proceeds of certain State lands, promising that if the Act was passed certain work would be done to raise the blockade on the Columbia river. That work has not been done nor has any work been done except on paper. [illegible] his recent excellent address to the public, and the communications of those who seem to be writing up the enterprise in the papers, we are informed that the aid granted two years ago is not in the proper shape. Well whose fault is it? Not the fault of the Legislature surely as they gave the Colonel just what he asked for. And if he now finds out that he did not know what he really needed how are we to know that if we vote him what he now asks that two years more of precious time will not pass away and no road be built, and that at the end of that time the Legislature will be again bored into another revision of its Salt Lake efforts?

I could not in the least make light of so important a subject but the interests of the State are greater than the interests of any citizen and it appears that it is time to have a little plain talk about this matter. And since we Grangers have learned to "talk in meeting," we will not be backward in putting in our say hereafter when matters of vital importance to us are up for consideration

What then are the assurances for the success of this road?

First. A bill before Congress to secure a small subsidy. And this same Congress has refused all subsidies.

Second. An act was passed through our Legislature which is now said by some to have died for want of action under it, but which it is now asked to be revived in a new shape.

Third. So far as known, the company which has been incorporated for five or six years has never done anything towards actual construction save a few unimportant surveys.

That is not a flattering showing for the construction of a great railroad seven hundred miles in length. That there are no capitalists or responsible business men in this Company must be evident from the fact that the hat has had to be passed to pay the expenses of Col Chapman at Washington, and that at the East Portland meeting held recently it was proposed to ask the Legislature to pay such expenses in the future. I find no fault with this, nor refer to it to call up unpleasant thoughts because there is no danger of the Portland people doing too much in that way, but I refer to it merely to show that the whole enterprise is yet a matter on paper. And if this was a State road it would be just and proper for the Legislature to pay Col Chapman's expenses but otherwise, it is a private corporation and the stockholders should foot its bills

In conclusion allow me to say I am in favor of granting Colonel Chapman's Company the aid he asks for under proper restrictions, to protect the rights of the State, whenever he shall show how he can succeed in the future better than he has in the past. It may seem a hardship to require success of any man, but the interests of all these people in Oregon and the northwest coast are greater than the interests feelings or ambition of any one or any company of men. Justice to the people requires prudence in administering the vast interests of this great empire of unpopulated country, teeming with wealth and boundless natural resources. The head of this Railroad Company will not himself claim that he has ever built or managed a railroad, or has had any experience in such matters, and he has no money to build with. The people want this railroad built and they don't care who builds it, and before they do anything more they want to know that the matter will be pushed energetically, and that future promises will certainly be realized. I think before the Legislature can be persuaded to move in this matter they will want to know who are the stockholders and directors of this Company asking for aid? Are they practical railroad men? Do they assure the construction of the road? or is there any man of capital or responsibility back of this Company ready to guarantee the construction of the road on the proposed subsidies? It may be that there are such men in the Company and I sincerely hope, for the success of the enterprise and the good of the State, that there are and that it will be speedily made manifest.

LEGISLATOR.

LETTER FROM BAKER CITY

BAKER CITY Aug 31, 1874

This the "last rose of summer" dawned mistily, dark clouds hanging over the mountain tops air chilly and a cold rain falling upon half cut grain in the valley; but rain and dark clouds are not of long duration in this dry sunny climate and the sudden change from heated dry atmosphere is rather pleasant

Our town looks lively to-day, teams unloading goods from below, and numerous quartz men buzzing about the streets, buying supplies and arranging for fall business while from a secluded corner may be heard the sound of pestle and mortar, some prospector having "struck it rich" and pounding away for dear life perhaps only to find a solitary color. Several good ledges have been found during the past season which will be w[illegible]. The James Gordon Co started work in their mine last week and the "Virtue Co." are sinking in their mine. The mill of that company is idle

Messrs White & Myrick are in town making arrangements to move their quartz mill to Conner Creek. These gentlemen are now associated with Messrs. Eastabrooks & Wood in their mining interests at that camp

There is no scandal no excitement, no bear stories nothing except your correspondent was chased down a mountain ravine by one of "Abbott's" coyotes one day last week, and killed him (not Abbott) with a shovel

Mr Horace Knowlton is lying dangerously sick in town

Southwick Isham of Jackson county who it will be recollected, had his leg broken some time ago by a cave had it rebroken the other day. It seems that his wife became frightened at a rattlesnake which threatened to strike her little boy, and gave a piercing cry. Mr Isham who had not fully recovered from his former injuries sprang upon his wounded foot, rebreaking it. Serious fears are entertained that amputation may be rendered ne[illegible]ry

CITY.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—An unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide was made a few days since by a lady named Mrs. Harrison, residing over on Columbia slough, particulars of which have just reached us. It seems that Mrs. Harrison had been married only about a week when she attempted to commit suicide. Before her last marriage, she was a Mrs. Clark. Her former husband, it is said, was addicted to drinking, and when she married again, Mrs. Clark had every reason to believe that Harrison was a sober man. But in this regard she was doomed to a bitter disappointment. Only a few days after the marriage, Harrison came to East Portland, and after getting partially intoxicated, "tackled" a blacksmith named Parker, in town, whom he accused of having insulted his (Harrison's) wife. High words passed between the parties, when Harrison seized Parker by the throat and told him that one or the other had to die right there. Parker had hold of a heavy pair of tongs at the moment, which he used on Harrison's head in a manner more forcible than polite, laying his antagonist sprawling on the ground insensible. One side of his head was severely gashed. Dr. J. W. Mack was called in and dressed the wound. That evening Harrison and his wife went home. The whole affair appeared to have wrought greatly on the mind of Mrs. Harrison, who expressed disgust with life, and said she did not desire to live any longer; she had lost one husband who was addicted to strong drink, and now it transpired that her second husband was blessed with a similar failing. Nothing was thought of her despondency, and no one had the most remote idea that the woman seriously contemplated self-destruction. A day or two following her husband's difficulty, Mrs. Harrison obtained possession by some means of a bottle of strychnine, and swallowed a considerable portion of the contents. When first discovered, the woman was, apparently, undergoing the paroxysms of death. Dr. Powell was summoned with all possible haste, but before his arrival the woman, who, it seems, had taken a very heavy dose, vomited it up and was much better. Soon after administering an antidote the woman rapidly grew better and was soon pronounced beyond danger. It was a very narrow escape. At last accounts both the husband and wife were getting along well.

MISSIONARY CONCERT.—Yesterday afternoon the first missionary concert of the present Conference year was held at the Taylor street M. E. Church. There was the largest attendance which we have observed for a long time, the vestry room being crowded to its fullest capacity, and many were unable to find seats. A very interesting and instructive program was offered, which was highly appreciated by the audience. The announcement [illegible] made that Gen. O. O. Howard, the new Commander of the Department of the Columbia, would be present, and address the children of the Sunday School, was the principal cause for the very large attendance. A few minutes after 3 o'clock the exercises opened with singing by the whole school. Prayer, by Rev. I. Dillon, followed. Miss Edith Dillon came forward, and delivered in a very neat manner a short address in relation to the missionary cause. "Lost Sheep," a vocal solo, was sung by Miss Connell, a very small girl, in a manner worthy of mention. Miss Mary Hall read in a clear, distinct manner, a recitation entitled, "Go, Work in my Vineyard." "Charity," a declamation, was delivered by Miss Eva Stroud. Mollie Marshall, a little Miss of not more than five summers, made her debut, and recited a verse of poetry, which would have won for the child a round of applause had it been delivered elsewhere than in the sacred precincts of the church. Singing by the school followed, under the leadership of Mr. Noon. "No Night in Heaven," a beautiful poetical selection, was read by Miss Emma Giltner, with fine elocutionary effect and emphasis. Miss Jennie Lee recited in good taste a piece of poetry entitled "Night is O'er." Next following came a quartette called "When Jesus Comes," rendered in a very beautiful style by the Amphion Club, composed of Messrs. Morgan, Struble, Morse and Franklin. Gen. O. O. Howard was then introduced to the audience, and addressed the pupils of the school for a brief time. The General is an earnest, practical talker, and speaks right to the point. His remarks were most excellent and listened to with great interest by the entire audience. At the close of Gen. Howard's address, a collection was taken up in aid of the missionary cause, and the Amphion Club gave another of their splendid selections. Benediction followed, and the audience dispersed.

GEN. DAVIS AT SALEM—RECEPTION TENDERED HIM.—The Statesman of yesterday says: "The Committee appointed for that purpose, consisting of Gen. John F. Miller, Capt. L. S. Scott, Marshal J. A. Baker and D. C. Howard, Esq., met and arranged for a reception to be given Gen. Jeff C. Davis, on his arrival in this city by the evening express. On the arrival of the train Gen. Davis was met by the Committee with carriages, who escorted him to the Chemeketa, where he was to be received by his friends. About 9 o'clock they commenced gathering in, and in half an hour the spacious parlors were filled with quite a large number of our most prominent citizens, accompanied by their wives, and the sociability of the evening was at its height. At ten the course of the promenade was directed toward the dining room, where a most sumptuous and elegant repast of cold meats, fruits and delicacies of all kinds, on a table beautifully arranged and trimmed, awaited their discussion. After refreshments all returned to the parlors, where in a short time the company separated, after a delightful evening.

PASSENGERS COMING.—The steamer Ajax, which sailed for this port from San Francisco on Saturday morning, brings the following passengers: Thomas Charman, A Binnard and wife, Miss E Cree, Mrs C S Wass, Ben Selling, I Selling, Otto Fox, George S Myer, S Seller, E M Morgan, L Estes, C J Smith, E C Brown and family, J G Megler and wife, B Blumaner, W H Van Veder, Jr; J Kohn, W Harris, B Brenner, E Hirsch, J F Campbell, General Baum, S Case, I S Esker, J D Scott, L H Lewis and wife, A W Kinney and wife, Miss E Kinney, S D Howe, R S Woolsey and wife, M Flaherty, Mrs L A Bugbee, Thomas Brotherton, C T Yehner and family, Miss M E Thompson and sister, P Van Fridagh.

ALMOST COMPLETED.—From Dr. O. P. S. Plummer we learn that the reconstructed line between Roseburg and Yreka will be finished the present week. Last Saturday the line had reached a point within six miles of Yreka. A large force of men are engaged in building the line under the superintendence of Mr. Richmond. By the first of next week the new line will be in complete working order.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Geo. Morgan was killed at a logging camp on the Cowman, a tributary of the Cowlitz, W. T., on September 1st. He and two others were felling timber. A falling tree struck another, which, breaking off, fell on Morgan, killing him instantly. From a letter from his sister, found on his person, it is thought he came from Montgomery, Hamilton county, Ohio. He was aged about 37.

S. L. Jones & Co., of San Francisco, announce by advertisement, telegraphed to us on Saturday, the sale of 5,000 pounds of Japan and Comet (new crop) teas, which arrived on Saturday per Vancouver. The sale takes place on Thursday, 10th inst., to which special attention is called. Our merchants should take advantage of this opportunity. Recollect the day.

CORNER-STONE LAYING.

Multnomah Fire Co. No. 2, which stand second to none in the Fire Department, is now having a most substantial edifice erected for its use. The members conceived the idea of placing a box in the corner-stone, and accordingly they had a [illegible] casket made by Jno. B. Brigham, and a neat plate was engraved for the lid by Mr. C. F. Keuhn, which contained the following inscription, "Multnomah Fire Engine Co. No. 2, Sept. 5th, 1874." Shortly after 4 o'clock on Saturday, a number of members of the Company and representatives of the Department assembled at the spot where the ceremonies were to take place. With the casket in hand Foreman A. B. Hallock made a few remarks appropriate to the occasion, at the conclusion of which he handed the box to Chief Engineer Bruen, who spoke briefly and then deposited the casket and its contents in the space reserved for its reception. Mr. Brady, one of the masons, then proceeded to hide the precious box from view by the use of mortar and trowel. Those present adjourned to Brendle's, where the incidents of the corner-stone laying were discussed over a foaming glass of beer, and thus ended the ceremonies of an eventful occasion in the history of the Company. In this connection we might add that the day appointed was the end of the eighteenth year of the Company's existence. The following were the articles deposited in the casket:

OUT-DOOR SPORTS.

From the bulletin at the Arcadian headquarters we glean the following: "The College Club will be here about August 26th. In this game the Arcadians will present a brilliant new player as change pitcher. The same club have entered for prizes at the Hillsboro fair, and will play Yamhill county clubs."

At a recent meeting of the Arcadian base ball club, resolutions were passed complimentary to the W. R. T. Co., the Astoria club and Astorians, the Hancock and Fort Stevens clubs, and to Major Smith and Lieut. Jones, for many favors extended to their club on their trip to the coast.

The game of cricket on Saturday, between the St. Georges and Pioneer base ball club, was undecided. In the first inning the St. Georges led by 10. The Pioneers got 90 runs in on their second inning, and the St. Georges had 20 runs on their second with four of their best men out when darkness forced the Umpire to call the game. The prospect of the Pioneers was very flattering, and had the game been fully played the result would no doubt have been in their favor.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—An unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide was made a few days since by a lady named Mrs. Harrison, residing over on Columbia slough, particulars of which have just reached us. It seems that Mrs. Harrison had been married only about a week when she attempted to commit suicide. Before her last marriage, she was a Mrs. Clark. Her former husband, it is said, was addicted to drinking, and when she married again, Mrs. Clark had every reason to believe that Harrison was a sober man. But in this regard she was doomed to a bitter disappointment. Only a few days after the marriage, Harrison came to Portland, and after getting partially [illegible], "tackled" a blacksmith named [illegible] [illegible] town, whom he accused of having [illegible] his (Harrison's) wife. High words [illegible] between the parties, when Harrison [illegible] Parker by the throat and told him that one or the other had to die right there. Parker had hold of a heavy pair of tongs at the [illegible], which he used on Harrison's head in a manner more forcible than polite, laying him sprawling on the ground insensible. One side of his head was severely gashed. Dr. J. W. Mack was called in and dressed the wound. That evening Harrison and his wife went home. The whole affair appeared to have wrought greatly on the mind of Mrs. Harrison, who expressed disgust with life, and said she did not desire to live any longer; she had lost one husband who was addicted to strong drink, and now it transpired that her second husband was blessed with a similar failing. Nothing was thought of her despondency, and no one had the most remote idea that the woman seriously contemplated self-destruction. A day or two following her husband's difficulty, Mrs. Harrison obtained possession by some means of a bottle of strychnine, and swallowed a considerable portion of the contents. When first discovered, the woman was, apparently, undergoing the agonies of death. Dr. Powell was summoned with all possible haste, but before his arrival the woman, who, it seems, had taken a very [illegible] dose, vomited it up and was much better. Soon after administering an [illegible] woman rapidly grew better and was soon pronounced beyond danger. It was a very narrow escape. At last accounts both the husband and wife were getting along well.

MISSIONARY CONCERT.—Yesterday afternoon the first missionary concert of the present Conference year was held at the Taylor street M. E. Church. There was the largest attendance which we have observed for a long time, the entire room being crowded to its fullest [illegible] and many were [illegible] seats. A very interesting and instructive [illegible] the [illegible], which was highly [illegible] by [illegible]. The announcement [illegible] that Gen. O. O. Howard, [illegible] Commander of the Department of the Columbia, would be present, and address the children of the Sunday School, was the principal cause for the very large attendance. A few minutes after 3 o'clock the exercises opened with singing by the whole school. Prayer, by Rev. I. Dillon, followed. Miss Edith Dillon came forward, and delivered in a very neat manner a short address in relation to the missionary [illegible]. "Lost Sheep," a vocal solo, was sung by Miss Connell, a very small girl, in a manner worthy of mention. Miss Mary Hall read in a clear, distinct manner, a recitation entitled "Go, Work in my Vineyard." "Charity," a recitation, was delivered by Miss Eva Strand. Mollie Marshall, a little Miss of not more than five summers, made her debut, and recited a verse of poetry, which would have been for the child a round of applause had it been delivered elsewhere than in the sacred [illegible] of the church. Singing by the school, under the leadership of Mr. Nobn. "[illegible] in Heaven," a beautiful poetical selection was read by Miss Emma Giltner, with [illegible] effect and emphasis. Miss [illegible] in good taste a piece of [illegible] "Night is O'er." Next followed a quartette called "When Jesus [illegible]" in a [illegible] beautiful style by the [illegible] Club, composed of Messrs. Mor[illegible], Morse and Franklin. Gen. O. O. [illegible] then introduced to the audience, [illegible] the pupils of the school for a brief [illegible]. The General is an earnest, practical [illegible] speaks right to the point. His [illegible] excellent and listened to with [illegible] interest by the entire audience. At [illegible] of Gen. Howard's address, a collection [illegible] up in aid of the missionary [illegible] and the A[illegible] Club gave another of their [illegible]. Benediction followed, and the audience dispersed.

GEN. DAVIS ARRIVES—RECEPTION TENDERED HIM.—The [illegible] of yesterday says: "The Committee [illegible] for that purpose, consisting of [illegible] Miller, Capt. L. B. Scott, [illegible] D. C. Howard, Esq., met and arranged for a reception to be given Gen. Jeff. C. Davis, on his arrival in this city by [illegible]. On the arrival of the train Gen. Davis was met by the Committee with [illegible], who escorted him to the Chemeketa, where he was to be received by his [illegible]. At 8 o'clock they commenced [illegible], and in half an hour the spacious [illegible] with quite a large number of our [illegible] citizens, accompanied by their wives, and the sociability of the evening was at its height. At ten the course of the [illegible] was directed toward the dining room, where [illegible] sumptuous and elegant [illegible], fruits and delicacies of all kinds, on a table beautifully arranged and [illegible] their discussion. After refreshments all returned to the parlors, where in a short time the company separated, after a [illegible]."

PASSENGERS COMING.—The steamer Ajax, which [illegible] this port from San Francisco on [illegible] morning, brings the following [illegible] Cherman, A. Binnard and wife, Mr. E. O. [illegible], Mrs. C. S. Wass, Ben Selling, I. Selling, Otto Box, [illegible] Myer, S. Selling, M. Morgan, L. Rose, D. J. Smith, E. C. [illegible] and family, J. C. ALMOST COMPLETED.—From Dr. O. P. S. Plummer we learn that the new telegraph line [illegible] Roseburg and Yreka will be finished the present week. [illegible] day the line had [illegible] a point within six miles of Yreka. A large force of men are engaged in building the line under the superintendence of Mr. Richmond. By the first of next week the new line will be in complete working order.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Geo. Morgan was killed [illegible] on the [illegible], a tributary of the Cowlitz, W. T., on September 1st. He and two others were falling timber. A falling tree struck another, which, breaking off, fell on him, killing him instantly. From a letter from his sister, found on his person, it is thought he came from Montgomery, Hamilton county, Ohio. He was aged about 37.

CORNER-STONE LAYING.

Multnomah Fire Co. No. 2, which stand second to none in the Fire Department, is now having a most substantial edifice erected for its use. The members conceived the idea of placing a box in the corner-stone, and accordingly they ordered a copper casket made by Jno. B. Brighard, and a neat plate was engraved for the lid by Mr. C. F. Keubn, which contained the following inscription, "Multnomah Fire Engine Co. No. 2, Sept. 5th, 1874." Shortly after 4 o'clock on Saturday, a number of members of the Company and representatives of the Department assembled at the spot where the ceremonies were to take place. With the casket in hand Foreman A. B. Hallock made a few remarks appropriate to the occasion, at the conclusion of which he handed the box to Chief Engineer Bruen, who spoke briefly and then deposited the casket and its contents in the space reserved for its reception. Mr. Brady, one of the masons, then proceeded to hide the precious box from view by the use of mortar and trowel. Those present adjourned to Brendle's, where the incidents of the corner-stone laying were discussed over a foaming glass of beer, and thus ended the ceremonies of an eventful occasion in the history of the Company. In this connection we might add that the day appointed was the end of the eighteenth year of the Company's existence. The following were the articles deposited in the casket:

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Damp, disagreeable weather yesterday.

Oysters are cheaper this year! They should be.

The thermometer dropped considerably yesterday.

We saw a man last evening who thought it was pleasant. Queer taste.

Sunday evening concerts are as lively as any given at the Chinese opera house.

What about the annual target excursions this year? Which company speaks first?

Hunting parties are on the lookout for ducks, quail, snipe, grouse, etc., with varying success.

The schooner Oregonian arrived at the Central wharf yesterday afternoon in tow of the tug Brenham.

Zan Bros. will not manufacture wooden and willow ware in their new building, but will import the articles mentioned.

Three funerals yesterday—the infant child of Benton Killin, Esq., W. N. Robinson (colored), aged 50 years, and the wife of Mr. C. P. Winsett.

There are thirteen Lodges of the Independent Order of Bnai Brith in District No. 4 (Pacific Coast), of which Oregon Lodge No. 65, in this city, is one.

OUT-DOOR SPORTS.

From the bulletin at the Arcadian headquarters we glean the following: "The College Club will be here about August 26th. In this game the Arcadians will present a brilliant new player as change pitcher. The same club have entered for prizes at the Hillsboro fair, and will play Yamhill county clubs."

At a recent meeting of the Arcadian base ball club, resolutions were passed complimentary to the W. R. T. Co., the Astoria club and Astorians, the Hancock and Fort Stevens clubs, and to Major Smith and Lieut. Jones, for many favors extended to their club on their trip to the coast.

The game of cricket on Saturday, between the St. Georges and Pioneer base ball club, was undecided. In the first inning the St. Georges led by 10. The Pioneers got 90 runs in on their second inning, and the St. Georges had 20 runs on their second with four of their best men out, when darkness forced the Umpire to call the game. The prospect of the Pioneers was very flattering, and had the game been fully played the result would no doubt have been in their favor.

BOARD OF DELEGATES.

The Board of Delegates of the Portland Fire Department held a regular meeting at the Police Court Room Saturday evening last.

Present—Messrs. Andrews, Moreland, Northrup, Hallock, Campion, Hart, Wetsell, Church, Wilcox, DuBois and Mr. President.

The meeting was called to order by the President, who stated that the first business in order would be the reception of new members.

The Secretary read the credentials of Messrs. Wm. Braden and John W. Holman as delegates-elect from Protection Engine Co. No. 4, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Robert Holman and H. Morgan. The credentials were placed on file. The oath of office was then administered to the newly elected members, and they took their seats as members of the Board.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

Messrs. Backenstos and Lownsdale appeared and took their seats.

The monthly report of the Department Secretary for August was read and referred to the Committee on Finance. It showed the receipts of the month at $11.

A communication from the Secretary of Willamette Company No. 1, giving notice of the election to membership in that Company of Eugene White and asking that a certificate issue to Mr. White, was read, the proper entry ordered to be made on the register and the certificate granted.

Notice of the resignation of Geo Ham and A. Rosenheim was received from the Secretary of Protection Co. No. 4, and the proper entry on the register ordered.

Notice was received from the Secretary of Tiger Co. No. 5 that A. St. Clair, A. McKow, J. J. Robinson and J. J. Doanes, had been elected to membership in that Company, and request that certificates be granted. The communication was placed on file and certificates granted.

A communication from the Secretary of Willamette Co. No. 1, giving notice that certain persons had been stricken from the rolls, was placed on file.

The Secretary of Willamette Co. No. 1 gave official notice to the Board that he appealed from a decision of the President of that Company, which decision had been sustained by the Company, and that he, the Secretary, now appealed to the Board from the action of the Company in sustaining the President's decision. The matter was discussed at length by the several members and was laid over for one month, the Secretary of the Board being instructed to notify the parties to the appeal to appear at the next meeting.

Exempt certificates were granted to B. Mayer, of Vigilance H. & L. Co., L. A. Goddard, of Willamette Co. No. 1, and Lewis D. Baugher, of Columbian Co. No. 3, all of whom had been in active service in the Department.

The President appointed committeemen to fill vacancies as follows: Wm. Braden, of Tiger Co. No. 5, on the Finance Committee, in place of R. J. Ladd, resigned from the Board; John W. Holman, of No. 4, on Committee on Certificates, vice R. Holman, of the same Company, resigned; J. P. Wilcox, of No. 6, on Committee on Cemetery, in place of H. Morgan, resigned.

After some other unimportant business, the Board adjourned.

LAST NIGHT'S FIRE.

Last night, about 10:30 o'clock, the city's clock bell tapped an alarm. Fire was discovered in a two-story wooden building, standing near the corner of Morrison and First streets. When first discovered by officer Beardon, who gave the alarm, the fire was at the rear end of the building, in the second story. It had just started. As soon as possible the engines were on the ground, and ready to combat the element. But for some reason a long delay occurred before the engines could be brought into action. Meantime the fire spread with fearful strides, and before a stream of water was directed against it the whole roof was in flames. For some reason the Department seemed to work under great disadvantage, and the fire was allowed to cross over to the large wooden building which stands north at the corner. The building in which the fire originated was occupied by J. Fleischner as a boot and shoe store. Ere the fire had got much headway a number of men began to move the goods, and succeeded in saving at least three-fourths of the entire stock. Mr. Hendee, who occupies the second story of the corner building as a photographic gallery, suffers a total loss. His son lives on the same floor, was asleep at the time, and barely escaped. So rapidly did the fire travel, and so tardily the Department appeared to work, that Mr. Hendee was unable to save scarcely a single article, either of his stock or instruments. He was compelled to leave his vest containing his watch. Mr. Geo. A. Pease, who occupied the whole lower story of the corner building, loses very heavily. His damage is entirely from water and removal as he did not commence to remove his stock until long after the building had caught. We understand that he is fully insured. Mr. Fleischner is insured, but we are unable to state the amount. Mr. Hendee had but a light insurance. At the late hour at which we write—12 o'clock—and the great confusion and excitement, we are not able to form any idea of the losses sustained by the parties mentioned, or give the amounts of insurance. To-morrow we shall give our readers the correct figures. The total loss, we are assured, will not exceed $10,000. But little wind was blowing at the time, which was a favorable circumstance. The Department did not succeed in destroying all traces of the fire until after 12 o'clock, as it was very difficult to get at such portions of the building as were burning. By great exertions, the Department succeeded in confining the fire to the corner where it originated. The fire is thought to have been the work of an incendiary, as no fire was used in that portion of the building where it was first discovered.

THE STAGE.

George B. Waldron, the well-known actor, was in New York a few weeks ago.

Madame Phelps will open a brief theatrical season at Oro Fino Theater on the 25th inst., with Amy Stone as the attraction. Mrs. Phelps writes that she has secured Charles Wheatleigh, who will appear here just prior to the Fair.

FIRST OF THE SEASON.—Last week Messrs. Beck & Waldman opened the first lot of Fall Styles in Clothing. The purchase was made by Mr. Beck while in San Francisco, and he has certainly made a most excellent selection. The Styles are new and will find a ready sale. Beck & Waldman are making a specialty of Boys' Clothing, and fond parents should note this when they are out buying clothing for their darlings. Now is the time. Prices low, goods to suit all classes. Call and examine. No trouble to show goods.

KOHN'S clerks were busy yesterday in arranging the new stock of Boys' apparel. In the new display fond parents can find anything to fit their little boys—be they young or old. In addition to the above, a fine assortment of Gents' suits, Furnishing Goods, etc., have been opened. Mr. Kohn is making some very fine selections during his stay in San Francisco. Call to-day and you will find everything as stated.

TO PLEASURE SEEKERS.

Parties leaving the city for a season of pleasure should recollect Oysterville, where Mrs. CARUTHERS at her cozy hotel, will look after wants of visitors.

VANCOUVER ITEMS.

"Occasional" sends the following under date of Sept. 5th:

Dr. T. F. Smith, assisted by Dr. J. W. Turner, performed a successful operation on the under lip of Mr. Valentine Probstel, in taking out a cancer, on Friday last. The patient is doing well.

Co. "E," 21st U. S. Infantry, stationed here, expects to be ordered to Port Townsend, Washington Territory.

Troops at this post will be paid soon.

Major E. C. Mason, of the 21st U. S. Infantry, received information that he will be soon assigned to duty at the recruiting department at Newport Barracks, Kentucky.

Brigadier-General O. O. Howard paid an official visit to the troops at this post. A salute was fired by order of Major John A. Kress, commanding Vancouver Arsenal.

Choice fruits are brought to market by Hon. S. W. Brown, Commissioner D. R. Fales, and others.

No wheat transactions of any large amount as yet. Our Grangers prefer to look at the wheat awhile. Their wheat, they know, will not rust. Coin may.

OYSTERVILLE AND VICINITY.

Our occasional correspondent, writing from the above point, sends the following:

The new wharf at Unity, on Baker's Bay, will be of great convenience to shippers and travelers to and from Oysterville, Unity and Astoria. The wharf will be 40x80 feet, with a roadway 310 feet to shore, all on heavy piles, with depth of water in front for either steamers or sailers, to be completed this fall.

Add to this a large hotel on the weather beach or ocean, one and a fourth miles across from Unity, with a large floating bath-house at Oysterville, and a large new hotel besides the two comfortable ones now there, and we may predict that the coming summer Oysterville, Unity and Shoalwater Bay will draw a large share of the patronage that goes annually to the seaside for a summer resort.

The last two years material improvement has been made at Oysterville. Some fine dwellings, a new M. E. Church, and now a new Court House is being erected, which is 30x50 feet, two stories, the lower 10 feet and upper 12 feet high, the lower to contain the county offices, the upper, all in one room, available for Courts, lectures or any public use.

Universal tobacco, a new and prime article. Finest brands of imported and domestic cigars at Bachman's, 90 First street, next to Walter Bros.

Dr. Steele's Medical Wonder is doing more to cure the rheumatism, neuralgia, cramp colic, and other pains, in Oregon than any other preparation. It removes the cause, safe, reliable and sure.

J. PINNEY,

Dealer in Imported and Domestic Cigars, Chewing and Smoking Tobacco, Yankee Notions, &c., offers the best, cheapest and largest stock in Portland. Call and judge for yourself and be convinced that as much satisfaction will be given for the money as at any other retail house in the city. Recollect the Havana Cigar Store, First, near Washington street.

The Stomach as an Avenger.

For every breach of the laws of health that we commit the stomach inflicts a penalty. Headache, biliousness, nervous tremors, constipation, colic, heartburn, nausea, debility and mental depression are only a few of the punishments which an outraged stomach is capable of imposing upon us. To bring back this vengeful organ to its normal condition—to placate, invigorate and regulate it—there is nothing in the wide world so potent as a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Under the operation of this beneficent vegetable corrective and tonic, the gastric juice becomes a pure and healthy solvent and resumes its natural flow. The effect is the same on the biliary secretion, and in fact on all the fluids of the body, and the final result is the removal of every painful or unpleasant symptom occasioned by the rebellious action of the digestive organ.

KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE—that it may be promptly administered in all sudden attacks of Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Diarrhea, Colic, or any kindred Affection, for which Dr. Jayne's Carminative Balsam is an effectual remedy. At this season of the year every family will find in it a useful and necessary curative.

THE OSAGE CEDED LANDS

DECISION IN THE U. S. CIRCUIT COURT FOR KANSAS—THE SETTLERS VICTORIOUS—BEAT BY LITIGATION THE RESULT—AN INTERESTING HISTORY OF A CASE THAT HAS BECOME HISTORICAL [Correspondence of Chicago Tribune.

LEAVENWORTH Kan Aug 25 1874

The famous tract of land known far and wide as the Osage Ceded Lands extends 50 miles north and south by 30 east and west in the southern part of the State of Kansas. It comprises about 900,000 acres of fertile and beautiful country and is covered by the counties of Neosho and Labette and parts of Allen Wilson Montgomery Woodson and Crawford. Thirty thousand people have made their homes upon it and are to-day rejoicing over the result of their great contest with the railroads.

For many years these lands were the choicest hunting grounds of the Osage tribe of Indians; but in 1866, the advancing tide of civilization [illegible] them removed to the Indian Territory [illegible] to cede their lands to the United States and since that time they have been known as the

OSAGE CEDED LANDS

To fully comprehend the great struggle which has just culminated in the decision of Judges Miller and Dillon it is necessary to go back to the year 1863 (three years prior to the treaty). At that time the Indians were in full possession of these lands and held them by a clear title as a reservation. The year 1863 was the great year of land grants in Kansas. Magnificent railroad enterprises were projected and liberally subsidized by Congress. Among others there were two roads leading to the Gulf of Mexico both of which were to run through the Osage reservation. One was called the Leavenworth Lawrence & Galveston, and the other the Missouri Kansas & Texas Railroad Company. Congress granted each road ten sections of land to the mile, on each side of their respective lines. The grants were made in the usual language of Congressional land grants with nothing showing any intention on the part of Congress to grant anything but the public lands. There was also a proviso in the act especially excepting from it "all lands heretofore reserved by act of Congress or other competent authority for the purpose of aiding any work of internal improvement or for

ANY OTHER PURPOSE WHATSOEVER."

It would seem to be plain that this proviso covered these lands as they had for many years been reserved by the Government as a home for the Osages, and their title to them secured by solemn treaty. In 1866, three years subsequent to the act of Congress making the grant the Indians ceded the lands to the United States, under an agreement that they should be sold by the Government at the highest price for cash, and the proceeds be paid into the Indian Civilization Fund. As soon as the Indians were removed from the lands the railroad companies began to look with eager eyes at the beautiful fields, and soon set up a claim to them under the act of 1863. When the lands came into possession of the Government not a foot of road had been built, but the companies inspired by hopes of a big grab immediately commenced operations. During the year 1871 they finished their roads through the lands. Meanwhile Congress had by joint resolution opened the lands to settlement and sale and thousands of settlers from all parts of the Union flocked to them with a view of making homes. Then

COMMENCED THE STRUGGLE

The railroads claimed the lands while the settlers insisted that they alone were the rightful occupants. The Secretary of the Interior decided that the railroads were entitled to them and all [illegible] made by the settlers at the Land Office to be canceled. In many individual cases the settlers [illegible] and ejectment suits were brought in the Courts with varying results. Impelled by a sense of common interest the settlers organized determined to make a united [illegible] for their homes. But the Railroads [illegible] gaining in spite of all their efforts, until, after four years of harassing and vexatious litigation with no result the Government took hold of the matter, and ordered the United States District Attorney to commence suits against the companies for the purpose of testing the validity of the patents which had been issued to them by the Secretary of the Interior. The order to the District Attorney was made Jan 24th last. He immediately filed bills in equity against both companies in the United States Circuit Court, compelling them to come in and defend [illegible] the whole question. The settlers had already employed Gov Shannon, and Messrs McComas and McKeighan of Fort Scott. These gentlemen by invitation of the District Attorney, united their forces with his and formed an exceedingly strong combination. The case came on for trial at the June term of the Court, and was elaborately argued on both sides and taken under advisement by the Court.

The [illegible] to-day Judge Foster [illegible] and the following decrees in the celebrated suit were announced.

CIRCUIT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT OF KANSAS

The United States of America against the Missouri Kansas and Texas Railway Company In Equity

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard at the June term 1874 before the Hon Samuel F Miller and the Hon John F Dillon Judges of said Court upon the bill, answer, replication exhibits and proofs, and was argued by George R. Peck District Attorney, Wilson Shannon and McComas & McKeighan, solicitors for defendant and the Court being now August [illegible] 1874 fully advised in the premises doth find the equity of the cause to be with the complainant and doth now order adjudge and decree that the legal title to the lands described in the Bill of Complaint and claimed by the said defendant and included within the limits of the said tract of land above described in the first article of said treaty proclaimed Jan 1 1867, between the Osage tribe of Indians and the United States is vested in, and of right belongs to the United States in trust for the uses and purposes specified in said first article of said treaty, etc., etc.

SAMUEL F MILLER
JOHN F DILLON
Judges

[Here follows a similar decree in the case of the United States against the Missouri Kansas and Texas Railway Company in equity.]

It is only justice to add that the United States District Attorney George R Peck, labored with zeal and fidelity to further the cause of the settlers. He performed his work too under peculiarly embarrassing circumstances having prior to his appointment as District Attorney held the position of attorney for one of the interested roads. Whatever may be said of Senator Ingalls, no one can justly withhold from him credit for appointing, as the successor of C. I. Scofield a young lawyer of fine abilities and unquestioned integrity.

DEPARTMENT DECISIONS

The first decision with regard to the title to these lands was made by Secretary Harlan indirectly in favor of the railroads. Afterward Secretary Browning carefully reviewed the case and also decided favorably to the roads. Subsequently Joseph Wilson Commissioner of the Land Office gave an opinion adverse to the roads—holding that the settlers had a clear title to the lands. This opinion was approved informally by Secretary Cox. It is understood that this informal approval cost Mr Cox his official head. Then Congress passed a law authorizing certain persons to purchase at $1 [illegible] per acre and under this act, about 3,000 quarter sections were purchased. Again the whole subject matter was called to the attention of the Commissioner who succeeded Wilson and he pronounced the law void. This action of the Commissioner was strengthened by a decision of Mr Smith, Assistant Attorney General and Attorney for the Interior Department confirming the opinion of the Commissioner of the Land Office. Secretary Delano then approved the decision of the Attorney vesting the title in the railroads and so the settlers were defeated at every point. At length they succeeded in procuring an order from the Attorney General directing the District Attorney to bring suit in the United States Courts to test the validity of the patents which suit resulted favorably to the settlers.

THERE IS GREAT REJOICING

Over the victory. The settlers are firing cannon ringing bells and calling grand mass meetings to celebrate their triumph over the corporations.

The Pacific Bridge Company has completed its contract on the Springfield bridge. There remains yet to be done a small amount of filling at the ends of the aprons which will have to be done by the road supervisor of that district.

Home Produce Market

WHEAT—As above intimated some little indications of a recovery from the inactive condition of the market in this cereal have manifested themselves in the past two or three days but as yet the transactions have been limited to comparatively small lots mostly purchased in the interior on terms equivalent to about $1 50 per cental, delivered here in sacks. By our next review we expect to have some considerable activity in this department of trade to report but aside from the small movement referred to nothing has transpired during the past week

EGGS—Receipts have been better and with a light demand for shipping prices have become weak at 28c per dozen

FLOUR—There are not very large stocks on hand here but some additions have been made during the week now specially under review and prices are rather weaker though choice extras are still held at a higher figure than in San Francisco. Although wheat is so low quotations for flour are still given at $5 50 ⅌ bbl for standard extras $4 75@[illegible] for country brands and $4 for superfine

GREEN APPLES—The market is tolerably well supplied with quotations ranging from [illegible] to 50c ⅌ bushel

HIDES—The receipts of hides and pelts continue, as usual quite free. We quote prime dry hides at [illegible] ⅌ lb green [illegible] culls 10@11c

WOOL—There are no transactions worthy of note although occasionally a lot finds its way to market. Quotations remain unchanged and range from [illegible] to 30c according to quality

OATS—The market is active with a fair demand for shipping purposes. Prices are a little lowward in their tendencies. Quotations are 45c ⅌ bushel for good white and [illegible] for black

BARLEY—The local transactions are of a trivial character and the market is controlled by brewers. We quote best lots at $1 40@1 50 ⅌ cental including sacks. Feed lots are worth about $1 [illegible]@1 40

FEED—The market is well supplied with the exception of chops. Prices are firmer. There has been considerable demand for the Sound trade. Quotations are Bran $14 chops and short [illegible] middlings $30 ⅌ ton

HAY—We note the receipt of several large lots which find sale at $10 ⅌ ton for baled timothy $[illegible]@10 for loose $[illegible] for wild

POTATOES—There is no lack in the supply or varieties. Prices range from 35 to 45c ⅌ bushel

ONIONS—The receipts have materially increased and prices seem tending downward common lots being now quotable at $1@1 25 ⅌ 100 lbs, and choice $1 50@1 75

"OCULIST and OPTICIAN are regarded as synonymous terms by nearly all classes of the community and Opthalmic Surgeons fail in their duty if they do not teach the public that an Oculist alone can make a proper and correct examination of the human eye and decide what glass and whether any should be worn by the patient, and the Optician's business should be confined entirely to preparing and setting in a proper frame the glass directed by the former exactly as an Apothecary compounds and puts up the medicine prescribed by the Physician. The band numbered 30 Indians. The trail was followed to near the frontier. It is believed the Indians are from the Arizona Reservation. From Moctezuma, [illegible] reports are continued of depredations by Apaches. The Governor sent Jesus Cocilanto with 100 men of the National Guard after them. The result is not yet known. Government for allowing reservation Apaches to cross into our State to plunder and murder with impunity. The murdering parties are well dressed and better armed than the Mexicans and are tracked coming into and going out of this [illegible]
